Sincere condolences for your loss. Grandmothers are very special, and even when they seem to have lived a good full life, our time with them is cut short of our heart's desire. Proverbs 17:22 says "a joyful heart is good medicine", therefore, may precious memories bring you joy and warm your heart. God assures us at Revelation 21:4 that soon "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more". The tears spoken of in this scripture are not tears of happiness and joy, but tears of mourning, outcry, pain and sorrow. We also have the hope of the resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death (Acts 24:15). As you grieve, may Jehovah, the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3,4), comfort you in your time of need.

My Dearest Grandma....I really miss you a lot. Over these past months, we've spent a lot of time together at work, going to your doctors appointments, shopping and walking together. I'm so blessed to have had an awesome tutu like you..... and for you and grandpa to have raised me...We shared funny stories and you were always such a very outspoken women, which I loved about you and that always made me laugh!!'d do anything and everything for you grandma!!! I miss you being at work with us, I miss making you coffee in the morning, I miss holding your hands and hugging you and talking too you! I miss buying you your favorite sandwich from McDonalds in the morning (sausage mcmuffin), but most of all, I miss having you by my side and the car rides we share where we catch up on story telling times....Now, your time has come and you're with KE AKUA and papa!!!! No more pain!!! Tell papa I really miss him and love him grandma! I really really miss and love you too!!!! will take care of mommy!!Aloha oe tutu! Until we meet again!!!!Love you always and forever!!!Eva
