I was blessed to get to know "Oma" Aloha Carvalho when I lived in her home. Words cannot describe what a loving and gentle soul she was. We would sit for hours as she told me about her amazing life. We would cook and laugh together, she would play the piano and teach me how to sing "Da Hil sa Iyo". I will never forget you Oma and the things you taught me...respect and love yourself, be honest, help others and give thanks to our Almighty Father every day... I love you Oma...
