Hellol just happened to read Chloe's obituary and felt compelled to write. She was far too young.It is my hope that some thoughts from the Bible will bring you some. Hope, comfort and peace. It was never God's intention that we should grow old and die. When He put Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, he also out before them the prospect of living forever happy and in good health. (Genesis 1:28)Our creator has not given up on that original plan..perfect live on paradise earth...even though Satan, Adam and Eve messed up (Isaiah 55:10-11)The Bible tells us that it is Satan who is responsible for death, and not God as some would tell us. (Hebrews 2:14)Our creator Jehovah God sent his Son Jesus Christ to ransom us from death and to destroy the works of the Devil (1 John 3:8)Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that excercises faith in me will live thought he dies." (John 11:25)With Jesus Christ enthroned as King of God's Kingdom, resurrection of the dead - including Chloe - and a restoration of paradise on earth is assured.It is My hope that until that time comes, you will find hope, comfort and peace in these promises from God.R/MartinSkipperGrumby@aol.com.

We are saddened about your loss of Chloe. We still cannot believe that she is gone forever from our lives. However, she will live on forever in our hearts. She now rests in God's arms and one day, we will all meet again. Chloe's passing has taught us not to take each other for granted and to live life to the fullest because we never know when God will call us home. We hope that your wonderful memories of Chloe will help ease the pain of your loss. We will miss her smiles and her personality. May she rest in peace.

Dear Jenn and Family: We are very sad to hear about your loss. We are very fortunate to have met Chloe in March when we came to visit from Canada. Chloe welcomed Emily with open arms. She had a great time playing with Chloe. Chloe had a beautiful smile and a great sense of humour. Thank you Chloe for the special memories. We will miss you dearly and you will always be in our hearts. Love, Phyllis, Ben, Trevor, Brendan and Emily

Our Precious Chloe:Our hearts break a little every day since you have been gone. You left us far too soon and now there is a huge void in our lives that will take a very long time to fill. We still hear your cute little voice and your infectious laughter and wonder how we will be the same again. Psalm 116:15 said, "Precious is the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Chloe, we take comfort that you have seen the sight of the Lord for we have heard you in the messages that you left us. You sure are one smart cookie! You are so amazing and far wise beyond your 7 years. We love you and miss you so much, and will forever be in our hearts.Jenn, Brandt, Reiden"You never know how strong you are until strong is the only choice you have." We truly admire how strong and courageous you have been. You have comforted us when it should be the other way around. Our hearts still aches with sadness and ours tears still flow. Your sadness is our sadness as well. We found this passage in the bible in John 16:20, where Jesus said, "You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy." It may take us a lifetime to feel that joy, but just remember all the precious moments you had with Chloe and how blessed we all were to have had that fun loving, sassy little girl grace our lives. We will continue to pray that god will give you the strength to overcome the difficult days and to keep Chloe's spirit alive with all the memories close to your heart.Much Love,Sam, Jackie, and Meghan

Stephanie Sugimura-Nipp lit a candle in honor of Chloe .

I remember Chloe when she was a baby and Mommy and Daddy would drop her off at Grandma Kathy Miyashiro's house before they go to work on Saturday mornings. Before we knew it she was walking and talking and then she got a dog, Mac, who she could ride on his back if she wanted to because he was so big! His size did not intimidate her because if Mac started barking, she would march right up to his gate or to the window in the house and start scolding him and telling him to stop barking!Before our very eyes Chloe was growing up to be a young lady who was fearless! You will be missed Chloe but we know you are in heaven and someday we will meet again!Clyde & Stephanie Nipp Neighbors of Denis & Kathy

Our hearts are deeply saddened for you and your family for the loss of little Chloe. She was a ray of sunshine when we visited 2 years ago- you all made us feel like a part of your family and on this day, the 4th of July, it holds a special memory for us when we celebrated the holiday at your grandparents' place with your family. Thank you Chloe, for your beautiful smile and love you have given us (forever in our hearts) Catherine, Les, Greg & Jordan (yr Canadian family) xoxoxo
