My condolences to the Lee family. I went to high school with Sue (as we knew her) and remember her as being bright, quiet, interested in a variety of things, but above all, very pleasant. I'm so sorry for your loss. I took a picture from our yearbook, you may have seen it before, but I thought you might enjoy. David Kennedy

Cheryl Thomas sent a virtual gift in honor of Susan Ann.

Susan and I were young when we worked together in Personnel at the US Department of State in Washington DC way back in the 1980's. Susan never minced words and always, always was a smart and hard worker. We had a lot of fun in those days and stayed in touch over the years. I loved receiving her joke emails and was fortunate to visit Susan and Darryl twice in Honolulu. Susan and another good friend, Gail, visited and stayed with me last year in the San Francisco Bay Area. Susan was strong and in good spirits and we had a great visit. I am so happy I was able to see her again. It is amazing to me what strong faith Susan had and how strong she was in fighting her Cancer. What a fighter right up to the end! I will miss you my dear friend Susan and grieve for your loss along with your family. Love, Cheryl Thomas
