Yoshie and Eddie, our deepest condolences on Uncle's passing. It was nice seeing him at Auntie Betty's funeral after so many years. He seemed so vibrant. I'm glad we had that opportunity to talk.

Dearest Aunty Yoshie & family, The last time I spoke to Uncle Tune was at Aunty Pearl's service last year and will never forget how kind and cordial he was to me. He asked me who I was and I explained that I was his brother, Wallace's daughter, and he expressed much concern for my dad. I may not have known him well but in that brief moment I felt I did. He was a kind, caring and loving person. May God Bless, Cynthia (Chu) Souza
