I was David's hairstylist and went looking for him on social media and found this after not hearing from him. I just saw him a few days before his passing. He walked in, was a bit quiet but his pleasant nature self, I gave him a hug and he left. What could have happened in those few days? He was walking Diamond Head and swimming, had recently got a driver but they were visiting his favorite eateries. My condolences to his sons, daughter, and grandson who he shared of fondly. Blessings to you, he was an angel, and you were blessed to have him as your father. I would encourage him to write a book of all of his wonderful life stories he created, but you have your own cherished memories. Take care and hope we will see him again one day.
