Diamond Head Mortuary and Williams Funeral Services is saddened to announce the passing of Amelia T. Cetrone. We are honored to be serving the Cetrone family at this time.

Amelia Theresa Cetrone, 89, of Honolulu, passed away peacefully in her sleep, July 11, 2022, with her loving niece at her side. She worked as the former executive assistant/administrator to Honolulu real estate developer Edward Jensen, of Hawaiian Horizon Corp.

Amelia was born in Philadelphia, PA, December 29, 1932. She grew up in a large loving family in the onetime very "Italian" area of the West Philadelphia Neighborhood of Overbrook.

Always an adventurer, after visiting the newly minted State of Hawaii, Amelia relocated to Waikiki, Honolulu, Hawaii in 1962.

Working in real estate development 40 plus years, met her beloved Husband, the late Felipe "Phil" V. Bautista, Jr. Who was the company comptroller.

Early on and all through her retirement, Amelia had interests in real estate property management. She served in various positions on condominium association boards including Waikiki Imperial and White Pearl Apartments.
