Jason Paul Kapunahou Kamalii

Devoted Father, Son, Brother and Friend

Jason Paul Kapunahou Kamalii, 53, died Saturday, Jan. 13, 2024 in Honolulu, O‘ahu.

Jason was born on October 1, 1970, in Wailuku, Maui to Nathan and Jane Kamalii. During Jason’s childhood, he was heavily involved in Boy Scouts of America (BSA). Due to his distinguished leadership skills and hard work, he was awarded the highest rank attainable in BSA, known as an Eagle Scout.

In 1988, Jason graduated from H.P. Baldwin High School. He was involved in his school’s band and played trumpet. He also devoted his time to their high school soccer team and was their starting striker. He continued his education at Kapiolani Community College with a focus in culinary arts. Jason then transferred to University of Nevada, Las Vegas majoring in travel industry management.

Jason established his career within the food and beverage industry as a manager at Outback Steakhouse. He was involved in the opening of several Outback Restaurants including Waipio, Hawai‘i Kai, Japan, and Kihei. He went on to work as a Sales Representative for Paradise Beverage allowing him to connect with restaurants on the Leeward side of O‘ahu and Waikiki. He was most recently employed at Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard in production machinery.

Jason continued his passion for soccer and valued his beloved father-daughter relationship by coaching Jamye Grace’s soccer teams. Jason coached within the American Youth Soccer Organization (AYSO), Hawai‘i Youth Soccer Association (HYSA), and Major Island Soccer Organization (MISO).
