Marion Fusae Oki

JUN 14, 1931 - AUG 6, 2024

Marion Oki, a beloved resident of Honolulu, Hawaii, passed away at the remarkable age of 93. Born and raised in the vibrant island community, Marion's life was a testament to hard work, resilience, and the joy of connecting with others.

Marion's journey began in the heart of Honolulu, where she discovered her passion for hairstyling. With unwavering determination, she opened her own barber shop, which quickly became a cherished fixture in the neighborhood. As both owner and operator, Marion poured her heart into her business, creating a welcoming space where laughter and camaraderie flowed as freely as the clippers.

Marion's wit was legendary. Customers would visit not only for a trim but also for the lively banter and clever quips that filled the air. She had an uncanny ability to make anyone feel at ease, turning a routine haircut into a memorable experience. Her infectious laughter echoed through the shop, creating bonds that lasted a lifetime.

Work was Marion's greatest pleasure. She relished every moment spent behind the barber chair, transforming unruly hair into works of art. Her dedication was unwavering, and her commitment to excellence inspired those around her. Whether it was a child's first haircut or a seasoned client seeking advice, Marion treated each person with kindness and respect.

Marion is survived by her daughter, Sheri Oki. Additionally, Marion leaves behind her nieces and nephews who fondly remember their aunt's wit, wisdom, and love.

Marion Oki's impact on the community cannot be overstated. Her legacy lives on in the stories shared by loyal patrons, the scissors that still snip in her old shop, and the warmth that lingers in the hearts of those who knew her. Farewell, Marion—you've left an indelible mark on our island paradise.
