I was heartbroken to learn of Auntie Nani's sudden passing. I had and have a deep admiration, respect, and aloha for Auntie Nani, Unko Fat, and cousins Robbie, Roland, and Russel. Auntie Nani made a huge impression on me when I was a young man and she showed me what it meant to truly love the Lord. I will never forget her and Unko Fat's generosity in allowing me to stay while my parent's considered Punahou for my sophomore year. I know that Grandma Lilly, Papa Willie, and Unkos William and Walter met and embraced her with open arms in the Lord's presence. I love you and miss you Auntie Nani. Sending all my aloha and sympathies to Unko Fat and my cousins. Love all of you! ~ Cousin Keoni, Boise ID

Thoughts of a Loving 'Nani' are from early memories when needing help and w/o question sharing their home, even while raising 3 little Hardys. A Faithful prayer warrior for the family, she loved all deeply and always had hope all would come to trust Jesus. She shared the best Kalbi recipe, tips for cooking spicy Jangorim, and taught us at an early age how & why eating raw garlic was delicious and good for your health! So many fun, great times etc...13th Ave, Chips Coffee Shop, Windjammer boatrides, latenite Black Angus dinners etc...sooo many throughout the years. Love you our fierce & loving sister-in-law!! Rest in Jesus ❤️

Aunty Nani and Uncle Duke, you two were her favorite people. She spoke so highly of who you are as individuals and the amazing couple that you are. I wish you could see the smile on her face when we spoke of you. She loved you both dearly! Thank you for sharing your fond memories of my mother. Our lives will never be the same without her.
