Bonnie Fakefia-Va'A lit a candle in honor of Brickwood "Buzzy".

He always warmly welcomed my family with open arms whenever we visited his home for get-togethers or parties, his bright smile and affectionate greeting. His heartfelt welcome 'Hello, how are you all doing? Come, no be shame, and help yourselves to whatever you like, we family.' I extend my deepest gratitude to Uncle Buzzy for showering my family with unconditional love. Love Da Va'a Ohana.

My Dad was a hard working lovable man and father. Give you the shirt off his back and the last bill in his wallet kind of guy. I will definitely miss his beautiful smile, conversations, and of course the many many cocktail hours that was shared with love ones. He shaped me who I am today. You will be remembered in everyone's memory. I love you Dad! And I miss you! Till we meet again ❤️❤️❤️
