Erin S. Inayoshi

FEB 18, 1973 - NOV 26, 2012

Erin Shigemi Inayoshi (39) passed into his eternal life peacefully in his home in Pearl City, Hawaii on November 26, 2012. Erin was born in Honolulu on February 18, 1973 to Henry and Sandra Inayoshi. He was the youngest of three children and was indeed the light of their lives. Erin was an electrician by trade, and last worked at the Home Depot in Pearl City. Erin will be missed by so many because he was always helping others. He was extremely talented in building all kinds of things - from cardboard houses to real ones. His craftsmanship was excellent! And if Erin didn't know how to do something, he would somehow figure it out. Erin also had the funniest and most witty sense of humor, and was an expert on pop-culture. One of Erin's most recent accomplishments was that he finished reading the bible... cover to cover, and was onto round 2 of reading it one more time! He attended Grace Bible Church Pearlside every Sunday, and volunteered his time in children's ministry. The thing Erin loved the most was spending time together with his best friend and wife, Tani and his 3 year-old daughter, Nicole (Niki). He just loved family and parks. Niki was the ultimate joy of Erin's life. Erin also loved having all his nieces and nephews together with him. His favorite was swimming, skateboarding, riding bike and just hanging out with them. Erin will be missed so very much by his loving mother, Sandra Inayoshi, sisters: Jill (Hank) Keanini and Jamie (Burke) Moriguchi. Visitation Friday, December 14, 2012 from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the Diamond Head Mortuary Chapel. Services to celebrate Erin's life on will begin at 6:00 p.m. Private Inurnment at a later date. The family requests that Casual Attire be worn for the service.
